

DoD/VA Suicide Prevention: Power of One

Webinar Series Presents

Advancing Social Media Awareness for Suicide Prevention

August 31, 2016

2:00 - 3:30pm

Registration opens on August 17, 2016!

To register please visit:

<http://dsपो.cds.pesgce.com>

For additional information, please contact:

usarmy.ncr.medcom-usamrmc-dcoe.mbx.dsपो-va-webinar@mail.mil

SAVE THE DATE FOR THE NEXT VA LED WEBINAR ON

NOVEMBER 30, 2016!!

SPEAKERS

Moderator: Dr. Mark Bates

Associate Director, Psychological Health Promotion
DCoE DoD Deployment Health Clinical Center
Defense Centers of Excellence for PH and TBI

Presenters

Craig Bryan, Psy.D., ABPP
National Center for Veterans Studies
The University of Utah

Laura L. Neely, Psy.D.
Research Personnel Psychologist
Defense Suicide Prevention Office

WEBINAR OBJECTIVES

- To differentiate between stable and dynamic aspects of suicide risk
- To understand how suicide risk may emerge in social media settings
- To describe research findings regarding social media content and eventual death by suicide
- To understand the process for translating and implementing knowledge into practice
- To identify the role of social media in military suicide prevention
- To describe the elements of an effective social media training program to reduce suicide risk

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS FOR THOSE ATTENDING LIVE WEBINAR

This continuing education activity is provided through a collaboration between DSPO, VA, and DCoE, and issued by Professional Education Services Group.